

Rotary Club of Truro

International Student Bursary

The $1,000 bursary will be awarded annually by the Rotary Club of Truro to an International student studying at NSAC. All students paying the international tuition differential are eligible for consideration. Preference will be given to students registered in a program of study and registered full time, with additional preference given to students studying for the full year taking at least four courses per semester. Special consideration will be given to students who came from a developing country and plan to return and apply their education from NSAC. Selection criteria include financial need and potential impact of the bursary on the student's lifestyle while at school and their future plans. Applications must be submitted to the NSAC Awards Office no later than September 20.
